CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

INFORMATION REPORT

This material contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U.S.C. Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation of which in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohil 25×1 by law.

This is UNEVALUATED THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR REY SEE REVERSE) Canton (July, August 1954) 1. On 7 June 1954, three anti-aircraft guns and one anti-aircraft machine gun were on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhsiushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Sentiles guarded the emplacement. 2. On 11 July 1954, six anti-aircraft guns were on a hill ten meters high which was 100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the T'lenho (1131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeled carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby.	JNTRY	China		REPORT
CE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED The source evaluations in this serior are definitive. The Appealant of Content is Tentative. 25X1 Canton. To June 1954, three anti-aircraft guns and one anti-aircraft machine gun were on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhsiushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Sentries guarded the emplacement of the Canton-Kovloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the Tilenho (1131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-melad carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby. Con 9 June 1954 there were seven anti-aircraft guns on a mound about six feet high near the highway on the outskirts of Tilenho Village, south of Tilenho A. 25X1	JECT			DATE DISTR.	22 October 1954
Canton (July, August 1954) 1. On 7 June 1954, three anti-aircraft guns and one anti-aircraft machine gun were on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhsiushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Senties guarded the emplacement. 2. On 11 July 1954, six anti-aircraft guns were on a hill ten meters high which was 100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the Tienho (1131/319) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeld carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby.		Emplacements, Cantor	n Area	NO. OF PAGES	$\boldsymbol{\omega}$
This is UNEVALUATED THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS SEPONT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF COMMENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR REY SEE REVESS!) 1. On 7 June 1954, three anti-aircraft guns and one anti-aircraft machine gun were on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhsiushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Sentiles guarded the emplacement. 2. On 11 July 1954, six anti-aircraft guns were on a hill ten meters high which was 100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the Tienho (1131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeled carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby. 20 21 On 9 June 1954 there were seven anti-aircraft guns on a mound about six feet high near the highway on the outskirts of Tienho Village, south of Tienho A. 25X1 field (N. 22-08, E. 113-18).	E OF INFO.			REQUIREMENT NO.	RD	2
Canton (July, August 1954) 1. On 7 June 1954, three anti-aircraft guns and one anti-aircraft machine gun were on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhslushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Sentiles guarded the emplacement. 2. On 11 July 1954, six anti-aircraft guns were on a hill ten meters high which was 100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the Tienho (1131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeled carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby. 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 28 28 28 28 28 28 28 28	CE ACQUIRED			REFERENCES
Canton (July, August 1954) 1. On 7 June 1954, three anti-aircraft guns and one anti-aircraft machine gun were on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhsiushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Sentities guarded the emplacement. 2. On 11 July 1954, six anti-aircraft guns were on a hill ten meters high which was 100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the Tienho (131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeled carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby. 20 20 20 20 20 20 21 21 22 25 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 21	This	s is UNEVALUATED	$ $ $ $
 On 7 June 1954, three anti-aircraft guns and one anti-aircraft machine gun were on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhsiushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Sentiles guarded the emplacement. On 11 July 1954, six anti-aircraft guns were on a hill ten meters high which was 100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the T'ienho (1131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeled carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby. On 9 June 1954 there were seven anti-aircraft guns on a mound about six feet high near the highway on the outskirts of T'ienho Village, south of T'ienho A. 25X1 field (N 122-08, E 113-18). 		*	PPRAISAL OF CONTENT	IS TENTATIVE.	25X1
1. On 7 June 1954, three anti-aircraft guns and one anti-aircraft machine gun were on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhsiushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Sentries guarded the emplacement. 2. On 11 July 1954, six anti-aircraft guns were on a hill ten meters high which was 100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the T'ienho (1131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeled carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby. 20 3 On 9 June 1954 there were seven anti-aircraft guns on a mound about six feet high near the highway on the outskirts of T'ienho Village, south of T'ienho A. 25X1 field (N 12-08, E 113-18).
1. On 7 June 1954, three anti-aircraft guns and one anti-aircraft machine gun were on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhsiushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Sentries guarded the emplacement. 2. On 11 July 1954, six anti-aircraft guns were on a hill ten meters high which was 100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the T'ienho (1131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeled carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby. 20 3 On 9 June 1954 there were seven anti-aircraft guns on a mound about six feet high near the highway on the outskirts of T'ienho Village, south of T'ienho A. 25X1 field (N 12-08, E 113-18).
 On 7 June 1954, three anti-aircraft guns and one anti-aircraft machine gun were on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhsiushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Sentiles guarded the emplacement. On 11 July 1954, six anti-aircraft guns were on a hill ten meters high which was 100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the T'ienho (1131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeled carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby. On 9 June 1954 there were seven anti-aircraft guns on a mound about six feet high near the highway on the outskirts of T'ienho Village, south of T'ienho A. field (N 12-08, E 113-18).
 On 7 June 1954, three anti-aircraft guns and one anti-aircraft machine gun were on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhsiushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Sentiles guarded the emplacement. On 11 July 1954, six anti-aircraft guns were on a hill ten meters high which was 100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the T'ienho (1131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeled carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby. On 9 June 1954 there were seven anti-aircraft guns on a mound about six feet high near the highway on the outskirts of T'ienho Village, south of T'ienho A. 25X1 field (N 122-08, E 113-18).
 On 7 June 1954, three anti-aircraft guns and one anti-aircraft machine gun were on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhsiushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Sentiles guarded the emplacement. On 11 July 1954, six anti-aircraft guns were on a hill ten meters high which was 100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the T'ienho (1131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeled carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby. On 9 June 1954 there were seven anti-aircraft guns on a mound about six feet high near the highway on the outskirts of T'ienho Village, south of T'ienho A. 25X1 field (N 122-08, E 113-18).
on a hill adjacent to the three swimming pools at Yuehhsiushan (6390/4423/1472), Canton. Senties guarded the emplacement. 2. On 11 July 1954, six anti-aircraft guns were on a hill ten meters high which was 100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the T'ienho (1131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeled carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby. 20 3 On 9 June 1954 there were seven anti-aircraft guns on a mound about six feet high near the highway on the outskirts of T'ienho Village, south of T'ienho A. fiela (N T2-08, E 113-18).
100 meters north of the Canton-Kowloon Railway and about one kilometer beyond the T'ienho (1131/3109) Railway Station. The guns were mounted on two-wheeled carriages and had barrels about eight feet long. Guards were standing at the entrance to the tunnels within the emplacement and about 30 soldiers were in a thatched house nearby. 20 20 30 9 June 1954 there were seven anti-aircraft guns on a mound about six feet high near the highway on the outskirts of T'ienho Village, south of T'ienho A. fiela (N 12-08, E 113-18).	Canton (Ju	uly, August 1954)
On 9 June 1954 there were seven anti-aircraft guns on a mound about six feet high near the highway on the outskirts of Tienho Village, south of Tienho A. field (N 13-08, E 113-18).	L. On 7 on a 1	June 1954, three anti- hill adjacent to the t	three swimming	pools at Yuehhsiushan high near the highway on the outskirts of Tienho Village, south of Tienho A. field (N 52-08, E 113-18).	1. On 7 con a l Canton 2. On 11 l 100 mc T'ienl riage:	June 1954, three anti- hill adjacent to the t a. Sentries guarded t July 1954, six anti- eters north of the Can ho (1131/3109) Railway a and had barrels about to the tunnels withi	three swimming the emplacement aircraft guns waton-Kowloon Ray Station. The at eight feet 1	pools at Yuehhsiushan t. were on a hill ten meter ailway and about one kil e guns were mounted on Long. Guards were stand	(6390/4423/1472), rs high which was lometer beyond the two-wheeled car- ding at the en-
	1. On 7 con a l Canton 2. On 11 l 100 mc T'ienl riage:	June 1954, three anti- hill adjacent to the t a. Sentries guarded t July 1954, six anti- eters north of the Can ho (1131/3109) Railway a and had barrels about to the tunnels withi	three swimming the emplacement aircraft guns waton-Kowloon Ray Station. The at eight feet 1	pools at Yuehhsiushan t. were on a hill ten meter ailway and about one kil e guns were mounted on Long. Guards were stand	(6390/4423/1472), rs high which was lometer beyond the two-wheeled car- ding at the en-	2
	1. On 7 on a l Canton 2. On 11 l 100 mm T'ienl riages trance thatch	June 1954, three anti- hill adjacent to the tan. Sentries guarded to July 1954, six anti-a eters north of the Can no (1131/3109) Railway a and had barrels about to the tunnels withined house nearby. June 1954 there were s near the highway on th	three swimming the emplacement aircraft guns watton-Kowloon Revistation. The at eight feet I in the emplacement of the emplacem	pools at Yuehhsiushan t. were on a hill ten meteraliway and about one kine guns were mounted on the long. Guards were standard about 30 soldiereraft guns on a mound all	(6390/4423/1472), rs high which was lometer beyond the two-wheeled car- ding at the en- ers were in a
	1. On 7 on a l Canton 2. On 11 l 100 mm T'ienl riages trance thatch	June 1954, three anti- hill adjacent to the tan. Sentries guarded to July 1954, six anti-a eters north of the Can no (1131/3109) Railway a and had barrels about to the tunnels withined house nearby. June 1954 there were s near the highway on th	three swimming the emplacement aircraft guns watton-Kowloon Revistation. The at eight feet I in the emplacement of the emplacem	pools at Yuehhsiushan t. were on a hill ten meteraliway and about one kine guns were mounted on the long. Guards were standard about 30 soldiereraft guns on a mound all	(6390/4423/1472), rs high which was lometer beyond the two-wheeled car- ding at the en- ers were in a

25X1

